WRIGHTSVILLE BORO, Wrightsville, PA

A grand old home with good bones and room to dream!

This is 226 Hellam Street in Wrightsville Borough.

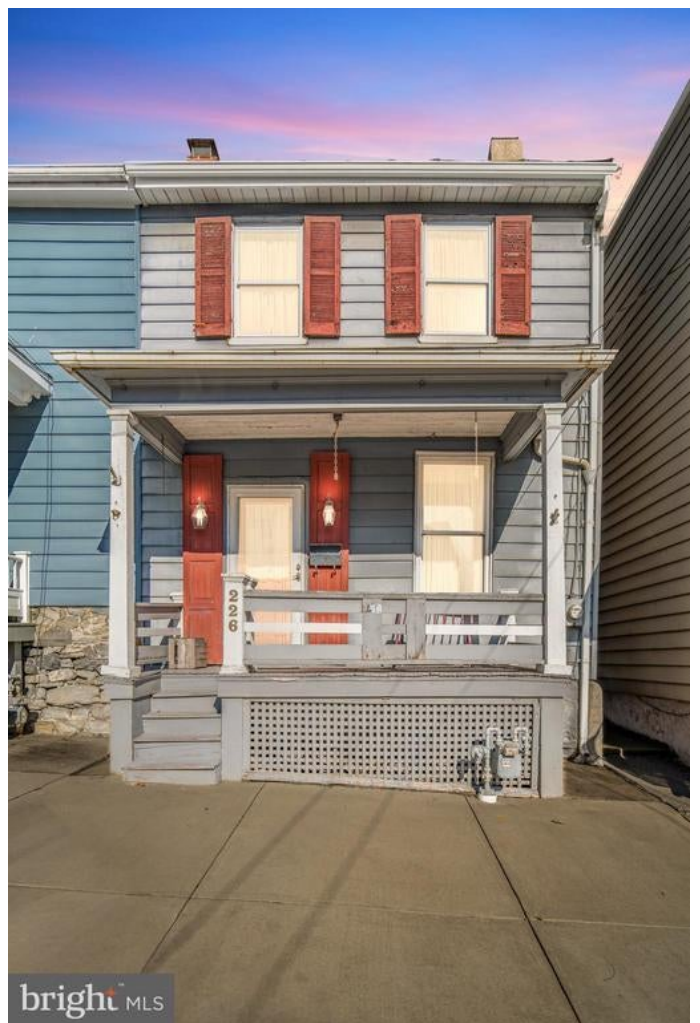

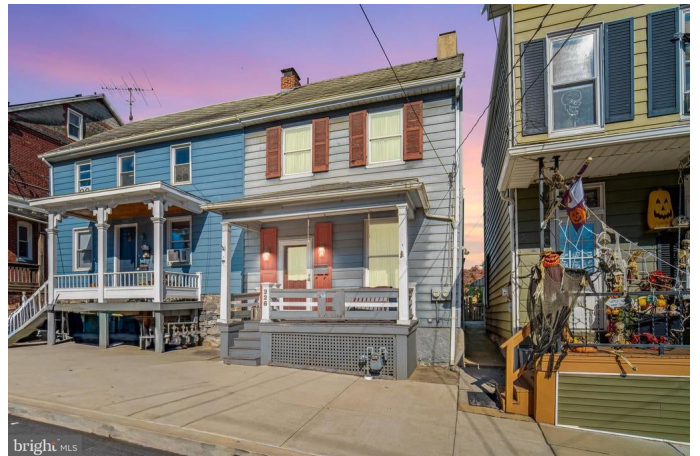

If you've been looking for a spacious in-town home with timeless character and potential to make it your own, this one is for you.

This semi-detached colonial offers the kind of square footage that's hard to find at this price point. Step inside and you'll immediately feel the space created by 9-foot ceilings and large living spaces that echo the home's original grandeur. It's a layout that's just waiting to be brought back to life by someone with vision and a toolbelt.

The eat-in kitchen offers great space to work with, including an island and ample cabinetry. Upstairs, the main bedroom spans the rear of the second story—offering the kind of bedroom space that sets it apart. The third floor adds even more possibility with room to finish for additional bedrooms, a hobby space, or storage.

A unique bonus to this property is the former beauty shop in the rear—already plumbed, with its own entrance and a half bath. Whether you're dreaming of a home business, creative studio, or just a versatile flex space, it's ready to go. Off-street parking and a private rear patio add even more value.

Located right in the thick of Wrightsville, this home gives you a front-row seat to parades and community events. Sue's Market is just down the block for everyday essentials, and some of Wrightsville’s best local spots—like Burning Bridge Tavern, John Wright Restaurant, Wild Batch Bistro, and Wrightsville Pizza—are all within walking distance.
